FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NORTHEAST OHIO COALITION OF DISABILITY ORGANIZATIONS
MARCH FOR ACCESS

Join the Disabled Community of Northeast Ohio on September 21 in downtown Cleveland as we rally for better access for voting rights and better access to voting for People with Disabilities

CLEVELAND – NOCDO invites the Disabled Community of Northeast Ohio and everyone who supports equal services for all people to attend the March for Access on Saturday, September 21 at Public Square in downtown Cleveland.

The event begins at 11 AM with registration and sign making for the march. The rally will start at 11:30 AM followed by the march, which will circle a few blocks around Public Square. The focus of the event will be voting rights and voter access.

This is a fully inclusive event, with ASL interpretation and captioning, a wheelchair charging station, accessible restrooms and face masks. Free parking and accessible shuttle service will be provided from the Cuyahoga County Board of Developmental Disabilities at 1275 Lakeside Avenue from 10:30 am until 1:30pm.

NOCDO is a coalition of agencies and organizations from Greater Cleveland who share in the mission to provide greater access and opportunity for individuals with disabilities. The March for Access will spotlight housing access, transportation access and voting access for the disability community in Greater Cleveland. This event will feature speakers and solutions on these issues and provide information on how to support increased access for individuals with disabilities.

Everyone is invited to attend this free event.

Find more information about the March for Access, visit www.nocdo.org

Media contact:
Mara Layne
Mlayne@Clevelandohio.gov
(216) 664-2480

###

NOCDO seeks to CELEBRATE the ongoing legacy of the Americans with Disabilities Act. We LEAD in ensuring access, increasing awareness, promoting independence and providing opportunity. We ENGAGE our community as advocates for positive change. Find more information about ADA Cleveland, visit www.nocdo.org.